The Bermondsey Artists' Group

The Bermondsey Artists' Group was established in 1984 by visual artists living and working in the London Borough of Southwark. Today BAG is a registered charity managing the Cafe Gallery: a lottery-funded purpose-built gallery in the centre of Southwark Park and Dilston Grove: London's most important raw space for installation, experimental and site-specific art located on the South-West corner of Southwark Park. To become a member of the Bermondsey Artists' Group, you must be a visual artist who lives, works or studies in the London Borough of Southwark.

As a member of the Bermondsey Artists' Group you will receive

- The right to vote at the Annual General Meeting
- Information on opportunities and collaborations such as selected group exhibitions at off-sit venues
- Printed invitations to the exhibitions at the Cafe Gallery and Dilston Grove
- Complimentary catalogues to exhibitions at Cafe Gallery and Dilston Grove
- Substantial discount on submissions to the Annual Open Exhibition
- Priority bookings on talks and events
- 10% Discount on books at the gallery
- 10% Discount on refreshments at the gallery

The annual membership fee for the Bermondsey Artist's Group is £20.00, with renewal occurring in April. To apply for membership, please complete this form and send it together with ten slides/prints of recent work, a current CV and a cheque for £20 made payable to 'The Bermondsey Artists' Group' to BAG Office, 92 Webster Road, London SE16 4DF.

Your images will be considered at the next meeting of the Council of Management.

Visual artists from all sections of the community are strongly encouraged to join the group.

The Council of Management of the Bermondsey Artists' Group continually strive to improve the services that the group and Cafe Gallery Projects London deliver. It would be of great help to us if you could spare a few moments to complete the monitoring questionnaire overleaf. Membership of the group is NOT dependant upon this section being completed but it is information that we would like to gather to inform future decision making.
